Section E – Submitting your application

The Shire of Brookton is keen to reduce paper wastage and other non-renewable resources and encourages building permit applications to be submitted electronically. This is especially important when many documents make up the application.

Your completed Building Application (including this checklist) should be emailed altogether to mail@brookton.wa.gov.au and titled with the subject line 'Building Application - Your Address'.

Note: Applications that are emailed (with payment details provided above) can be processed faster. If you are unable to include all attachments in one email, attachments can be sent separately – emails should however be shown to be related by using the above subject line naming convention.

Application Notes:

Disclaimers:

1. This document is intended as a guide to assist in your application. The applicant is responsible for providing the correct information for an application. Incomplete applications may not be accepted. Please note that further information may be required for certain applications (including but not limited to the items listed in Section C) and is at the discretion of the Building Surveyor and relevant officers assessing the application.
2. To ensure that your building application complies with required development approval and the Shire's planning strategies please contact the Shire of Brookton's Building Department and arrange a suitable time for a Planning Officer to check your proposed works.
3. It is the Applicant's responsibility to ensure that a building permit has been issued before commencement of building works. Building without a required permit may incur a fine of up to $50,000 for a first offence.
4. Application fees, this checklist, and the application process and/or requirements is subject to change without notification.
